Mexican War Department Declares Government Is in Full Control.

DISPATCHES ARE CENSORED

Little Fighting Yesterday. Madero Ranch Raided, but Leader Not Caught.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 23.—The press is still denied telegraph facilities and the censorship appears to have extended to consular messages The American embassy has been without reports for three days.

The war department announces that all places where there have been disorders are now tranquil and that the government is in control everywhere except in Guerrero city. Troops are proceeding to this point.

Late advices say that quiet prevails at Zacatecas. There is a general movement of troops to Parral, Jiminez and Chihuahua At Monterey measures have been taken to prevent trouble but the people appear to be indifferent to the movement.

Guadalajara is reported quiet. At Chihuahua an attack made by rioters had been resisted up to noon. About that time troops arrived from San Andreas and dispersed the rioters.

Efforts made by the revolutionists to enlist the railroad men in their cause at Nueva Laredo have failed. Word from Torreon says that the stories of the sacking of a ranch in the San Antonio district are untrue.

Madero Ranch Raided.

LAREDO, Tex., Nov. 23.—Mexican soldiers late today raided the San Enrique ranch of Francisco I. Madero leader of the uprising in Mexico, for the chance of capturing Madero and seizing the horses on the estate. They seized 200 horses but Madero was not found.

Reports have had it that Madero was headed for the San Enrique property in the state of Coahuila. Furthermore it was believed by the Mexican authorities that Madero had placed 2,000 horses there with which he intended to mount a force of cavalry.

General Trevino left Monterey this afternoon, a reliable Mexican authority says, with a trainload of soldiers destined for Torreon and Gomez Palacio where further trouble is expected.

Solely Against Diaz.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Gustava A. Madero, brother of the leader of the revolution in Mexico, arrived in Washington today He comes as the confidential agent for the revolutionary party but so far has not called on the state department Madero issued the following statement

"Since the government of General Diaz and its representatives in this country have endeavored and are still endeavoring to cause to appear by statements given to the press that the revolutionary movement initiated by Don Francisco I. Madero on the 20th instant, finds active and sympathetic support by the anti-American element in Mexico, the confidential agent of

CITY TAX LEVY IS UNSOLVED PROBLEM

Special Committee Merchants Association Recommends Maximum 20 Mills.

LONG DISCUSSION FOLLOWS

Mayor Noncommittal as to His Intention—Is Arraigned by Several Speakers.

The city tax levy for 1911 is as much of a puzzle as ever. The Merchants association, acting on the report of its special committee, yesterday recommended to the City Council that the levy shall not exceed 20 mills for all purposes, but its representatives did not explain just how this can be done, in view of the great deficit this levy would leave, provided the estimates of the various commissioners are left intact. The Mayor, who is the sole dictator of the maximum limit in every item in the budget, refused to say yesterday what he will do, although he appeared pleased with the recommendation of the merchants committee. At its meeting yesterday morning the Council granted Mayor Avery until next Wednesday to submit the budget

At a meeting at the Alamo hotel of the trustees of the Merchants association, who have full power to act for that body, the committee, L. A. Puffer, C. E. Emery and F. T. Metzler, yesterday noon formally recommended that the total tax levy be not more than 20 mills This report was adopted by the executive committee, and the special committee was requested to present it to the City Council.

The committee, together with President John Lennox and Secretary L. J. Newsome of the association met at the Mayor's office shortly afterward, with Mayor Avery and the four other members of the Council, together with Judge H. G. Lunt, president of the park commission, and E. J. Ullrich Mr Ullrich represented the subcommittee of the civic committee on streets and roads, having to do with the improvement and maintenance of streets in Colorado Springs proper.

The committee from the Merchants association then read again its report to the trustees, as follows

"Your committee on municipal affairs, to which was referred the proposed budget for 1910 for taxes of 1911 for the city of Colorado Springs, begs leave to submit the following report

"'After carefully investigating the estimated receipts and proposed disbursements for the period, it recommends that the tax levy shall not exceed 20 mills for all purposes'"

Mr. Ulrich's Views.

The Mayor then asked if anybody had anything to say, and Mr Ullrich addressed the meeting. He said that he preferred not to express himself until he heard from the commissioners as to the details of the items in their respective estimates. He also expressed the opinion that it was up to the merchants committee to point out its method of reasoning whereby it recommended a maximum levy of 20 mills when even the previously suggested 22 1-3 mills levy will fall short of the full amount asked for by the commissioners Mr Ullrich pointed out that suggestions as to how cuts in the estimates should be made if such cuts were desirable, should be forthcoming

The commissioners then explained their figures, and nothing was said against any of the estimates except in the case of Commissioner Whitaker, whose estimate for the fire and police departments was regarded too high by President Lennox of the Merchants association Mr Lennox thought that the city has ample fire and police protection, and Whitaker thought otherwise.

All estimates were based on bare maintenance with the exception of the for the park commission, and the improvements contemplated in this department seemed to meet with approval on the part of most of those present

Mayor Avery then explained what he is going to do with particular regard to his proposed tax on corporations, automobiles, etc

Mr Ullrich said

"Why do you not do it"

"I have tried several times to get measures through and have failed," answered Avery

"That's all talk," said Lawton, "you

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette in the hands of English officers a prisoner of war. Mrs Pankhurst recently led an army of 1,000 suffragettes against the police forces surrounding the house of commons in an attempt to pass them and reach Premier Asquith to insist upon the introduction of a woman's suffrage bill. Although the scrimmage was a lively one, the police were too strong for them and although the women tried every means in their power to force the lines, using their banners as clubs and biting and scratching, they were repulsed and 116 arrests were made

New Mill for Low Grade Ore Operating at Woodland Park

"If I can't pull out hundreds of dollars per ton from that ore, I am willing to pay a forfeit of $1,000," said Franklin J Beatty of Woodland Park, who yesterday morning put in operation for the first time his new 100-ton mill. His plant is situated four miles north of Woodland Park, and within 100 yards of the mine from which he has already taken out much ore

The operation of the mill and the first trial, on a large scale, of the new process by which Mr Beatty claims that he can extract high values from ore discarded by the processes now in general use, has been delayed some time by the inability to get certain parts of the roaster and crusher. Last week, however, he secured all necessary parts and the mill was put in operation on the ore, which has been ready for treatment for some time

Mr Beatty gave an address before a large audience of mining men in the Mining Exchange here several months ago, on his views of the ore in this vicinity

In the tunnel from which the ore has been taken, is a large and well defined vein Other mining men who have been there admit that the vein is there, with some values, but as to its running as high as Mr Beatty claims, they are somewhat skeptical.

The work in the new plant will be conducted under the name of Stump and Beatty, for the claim from which the ore is being taken, is owned by Mrs Stump, who lives near the mine, and an arrangement has been reached whereby Beatty is to receive one-half the profits on her ore, for treating it in his mill.

The importance of the first real test of Beatty's discovery, if it proves to be even one half as successful as he claims, cannot be overestimated. He has steadfastly refused to divulge the exact methods by which he can extract values from the ore ordinarily thrown away by mill men Should his discovery be what he claims, the entire mining industry will be revolutionized, and the results of the first few days of work at the new mill will be watched with keen interest by mining men.

SHOW US AND NAME YOUR OWN PRICE---RAILROADS TO BRANDEIS

CHICAGO Nov 23.—Attorney Louis D Brandeis statement before the interstate commerce commission on behalf of the eastern shippers that railroads through alleged inefficient management wasted a million dollars a day was answered by western railroad presidents today with a telegram offering him a position at his own salary if he could point to the alleged mismanagement

"A salary of a quarter of a million a year would not be excessive if he could save twice that much all told to us," said the representative of the presidents The telegram followed a conference of Western railroad presidents in which Darius Miller, B. L. Winchell, H. U. Mudge and F. A. Delano are known to have participated

WASHINGTON, Nov 23 Today's session of the interstate commerce commission consisted mostly of discussion of scientific management of railroads by expert witnesses This line of testimony was closed late in the afternoon and the commission adjourned until Friday

Attorney Brandeis for the Atlantic seaboard shippers in summing up the scientific management testimony reiterated his request that the commission conduct an independent investigation if it believes that the railroads have not introduced such scientific methods and he believed that he had produced [illegible] to show they had not. He [illegible] the [illegible] of the recent wage [illegible] as an excuse for rate increase [illegible] to an increase of the burden of the American public

He called the attention of the commission [illegible] he described as a [illegible] the heads of great trunk lines [illegible] being [illegible] an earnest of what is to come that the public is to expect and be come accustomed to a progressive rise in rates throughout the country

Mr Brandeis assumed the burden of proof was on the railroads to show whether they have put into operation economies which he did not believe existed and that those economies should first be practiced before making advances

Cites Santa Fe

Charles B. Going managing editor of an engineering magazine told how the Atchison Topeka and Santa Fe railroad made a net saving of $5,300,000 [illegible] its repair and machine shops through functional organization analytical study and standardisation of instructions

Harrington Emerson, engineer, factory manager investigator and business manager described the application of scientific management to the railroads He testified that it was by no means settled that larger locomotives meant diminished cost, while on the other hand it was quite likely the railroad could not haul as much business as it does now with the smaller engines and other equipment of 20 years ago He did not think very much of those railroads that had done nothing in the way of scientific methods

He referred to the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific several times in response to questions by Commissioner Prouty, who asked him how it was that those two enterprising roads had not seen fit to adopt those principles if they had not done so He said that he talked with James J. Hill and that he knew that Mr Hill's road moves more power for a less amount and hauls a larger tonnage per locomotive than does the Union Pacific

Lack Scientific Management

Mr Emerson believed that a railroad manager might be born again He

NEWCASTLE, COLO., SCENE OF TRAGEDY

NEWCASTLE, Colo., Nov 23.—William Griffith a saloonkeeper, enraged at his conviction for assault, ran amuck on the streets here this evening shot and killed one man and badly wounded two others He is now barricaded in a room in the Bank block and shooting through the window at every one who approaches.

William Davis, a bystander, is dead with a bullet in his brain City Marshal Remmix is wounded, with a bullet in his abdomen Philip Carpenter, a pioneer of the town, who was passing along the street at the time of the shooting, was shot in the neck, and will die

Griffith, who is known as Colorow, after the Indian chief of that name, was convicted in the district court of Glenwood Springs of assault, the complainant being J. T. Sample. Pending an appeal, Griffith was released on bond

He returned to Newcastle on the first train, and Sample was the first person he saw after alighting from the car He immediately opened fire on Sample, who fled, with Griffith in pursuit Marshal Remmix attempted to arrest Griffith and was shot down, after which Griffith fired into the crowd of spectators, killing Davis and hitting Carpenter.

Griffith then fled to the Bank block. The sheriff has been summoned from Glenwood and is said to be on his way with a posse

After aid had been summoned from Glenwood Springs, Newcastle citizens formed guard about the Bank block, in which Griffith roomed, but failed to get any response to their shots. Upon the arrival of Sheriff Divilbiss, two men, Joseph Davis and Frank Quinlan, volunteered to climb the dark stairway leading to Griffith's apartments Preceding them went Leila McChael a woman acquaintance of Griffith and a Mrs. Van Luven, her friend.

"It's I, Will," called the McChael girl, "It's Leila"

When no response came she pushed into the room, followed by the men. Griffith was shot through the head, the bullet entering his right eye.

ASCENDS UNTIL ATMOSPHERE FAILS

Drexel Reaches Height Where Rarity of Air Will Not Sustain Machine.

SETS NEW WORLD'S RECORD

Uses Bleriot Monoplane Ink of Barograph Gives Out at 9,970 Feet.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23. J. Armstrong Drexel broke the world's altitude record in a flight from Point Breeze this afternoon. The barograph recorded 10,000 feet. The last previous record, 9,714 feet, was made by Ralph Johnstone on October 31 at Belmont park. The official record of the barograph carried by Drexel is 9,970 feet.

Drexel climbed until his Bleriot monoplane was unable to make further progress in the rarified atmosphere

The ink in the needle of his barograph ran out at 9,970 feet which was accepted as a new world record tonight by Clifford B. Harmon, chairman of the National association of Aero clubs of America and James King Duffy, the secretary of that body

The instrument is the same one which Johnstone carried when he made the former record of 9,714 feet at Belmont park on October 31 It was brought to this city today under the seal by Mr. Duffy in order that the record made would be official

Mr. Drexel left the aviation field at 3.43 and landed at Oreland about 20 miles north of the spot where he had started at 4 46 In his climb he had traveled at least 30 miles to the northward for when he started to descend, after trying for 15 minutes to force the machine higher, he glided down for a distance which he estimated tonight at about six miles

Descent Made Him Sick.

So swiftly did the monoplane descend that the aviator was nauseated However, he reached an open field and brought his machine to the ground without injury He at once notified the officials at the aviation field of his landing Clifford B. Harmon and Grahame-White left for Oreland in an automobile and brought the aviator and the barograph, still under seal to this city

Mr Drexel said tonight that he would fly the machine back to the aviation field tomorrow morning He was greatly disappointed when he found that the barograph had failed to record an even 10,000 feet

"The air was so light it was impossible to make the machine ascend another foot," he said "The engine would not carry it any farther and I was up at the extreme altitude for more than 15 minutes jumping the machine in an effort to secure a greater height

Mr Drexel tonight said that while it was very cold, yet as he was warmly clad he did not suffer as he had when he made his previous records of 6,750 feet at Lanark, Scotland, and 8,370 feet at Belmont park

When Drexel began his flight a light breeze was blowing from the south As he rose the aviator pointed his machine toward the north and in less than five minutes was only a speck in the sky

When the monoplane finally disappeared from view the curiosity of the crowd was at fever pitch for more than an hour Finally, when word came of his safe landing a mighty shout went up, to be renewed when it was announced that a new world's altitude record had probably been made

RAY OF HOPE APPEARS FOR DR. C. B. HYDE

HELENA Mont., Nov 23.—If Dr. B. C. Hyde serving a life sentence for the murder of Colonel Swope of Kansas City, is awarded a new trial, it will probably be because Joe Edgerton a prominent Helena mining man and member of the last legislative assembly, saw Hyde's name in the directory of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity Mr. Edgerton tonight told the Express the full story of how he sent Hyde a box of cyanide, estimated at two pounds, and how 17 years later he came to let Hyde's attorney know of this fact.

Edgerton's statement is considered of great importance to Hyde in view of the fact that the latter during his trial could not explain to the satisfaction of the jury where he had procured cyanide which he admitted he had been using for many years.

SHAFROTH ATTACKS "NEW NATIONALISM"

Transmississippi Congress Adopts Resolutions Criticising Railroads and Trusts.

SAN ANTONIO, Nov 23.—Railroads and trusts were criticised this afternoon in resolutions introduced by Governor Stubbs of Kansas and unanimously adopted by the Transmississippi Commercial congress

One set urges the national Congress to enact legislation providing for the valuation of railroads A second set calls upon Congress to amend the Sherman antitrust law making it mandatory and providing imprisonment for violations Another urges Congress to enact a law to regulate the issuance of stocks and bonds of interstate railroads without entrenching upon the right of states to regulate their corporate affairs

Still another is worded

That we urge upon the interstate commerce commission that it correct these abuses by prescribing rates to the gulf ports which with due regard to the cost of service and distance are reasonable and which are not based on rates to and through the so called gateways plus the rates back over the same line and thence to the gulf

Governor Shafroth of Colorado tonight spoke on Federal Leasing of Mineral Lands He attacked the New Nationalism and declared the leasing of mineral lands by the national government and the withdrawal of public lands from colonizing entries meant the ultimate concentration of undue power at Washington

TESTIMONY IS SENSATIONAL

NO PRECAUTIONS TAKEN AT STARKVILLE.

Passages Thick With Dust Which Officials Did Not Know Is Explosive.

TRINIDAD, Nov. 23.—That no particular orders existed at Starkville relative to sprinkling, that gas had been discovered in small quantities, that the mine was dry and dusty and that the officials did not know that coal dust was of itself explosive were some of the facts brought out by the testimony at the coroner's inquest to determine the cause of the disaster on October 8 which cost 56 lives

The inquest is in progress at the court house and between 30 and 40 witnesses have been summoned to tell what they know of the affair Supt J. S. Johnson was kept on the witness stand nearly three hours Others who testified were General Manager F. H. Weitzel Mine Superintendent James Wilson Motorman Thomas Dennison Trip Rider Patrick Burns William Morgan superintendent of the Engleville mines and Electrician George C. Charters Attorney Fred Harrington representing the company at the inquest followed the testimony closely and Attorney Parry who it is said holds the power of attorney for a number of Austrian and Italian families who lost relatives in the disaster is also attending the inquest

The testimony of Thomas Dennison, who ran a motor from the "K-1" entry to the 'dip, was sensational. Dennison declared that the dust was often nearly rail high in the mine, and that the men were sometimes obliged to shovel it from between the tracks in order that the motors would not be impeded He declared that for three weeks prior to the explosion but two tanks of water had been brought to the portion of the mine he worked, and that a part of this was used in filling the barrels from which the mine mules drank

Patrick Burns testified that the dust was so thick in the mine that in riding out a trip of cars he was often obliged to shield his face with his arm His testimony was to the effect that gas was found in one of the "L" entries and he stated that three weeks before the explosion he took three rolls of brattice cloth into the mine to be used in closing up the entry

TWO YEARS TO FINISH CANAL

WASHINGTON Nov 23—President Taft returned to Washington today, after having stopped a day at Richmond, Va., on his way from the Isthmus of Panama.

The President announced soon after his arrival that he would make no engagements in the next few days. In that time he hopes to have completed his message to Congress.

Only cabinet officers and others with whom the President desires to consult regarding his message will be formally received at the White House. The document will be ready either the night of the twenty-eighth or early on the twenty-ninth. The President will deal in the message with his visit to Panama, making recommendations on a number of subjects which he desires considered with a view to early legislation. Coincident with the President's return it was learned there is not the slightest prospect for an extra session of Congress following the coming short session.

President Taft had an interesting day in Richmond, the most important features of which were an informal address on the Panama canal at the luncheon given in his honor, and an address before the Virginia Educational conference.

The President in his Panama canal speech attempted in a way to describe the conditions which he found, and he aroused intense enthusiasm by his prediction that the canal would be open well in advance of the official date of opening, January 1, 1915. He declared that if necessity demanded, he believed American battleships could be sent through the waterway by January 1, 1913.

government of law and order such as is maintained in the United States.

"Meanwhile the rights and interests of American citizens, as well as those of other citizens in Mexico, have been and will be meticulously respected and protected by the forces of the revolution in accordance with the requirements of international law and modern usage."

Rebels Hold Torreon.

EAGLE PASS, Tex., Nov. 23.—Employes of the federal telegraph lines in Ciudad Porfirio Diaz say Torreon has surrendered to the rebels and that the Maderoists now invest the city. All arms and ammunition there have been confiscated by them, but the owners were told to call at rebel headquarters at Lerdo and they would be paid.

An American conductor reaching Eagle Pass today from Torreon, said he counted 21 bodies of Mexican soldiers, police and rurales in Gomez Palacio on Monday. The revolutionists carried away their dead and wounded.

A high Mexican official of Ciudad Porfirio Diaz said 52 Mexican soldiers were killed at Gomez Palacio.

A report declared to be unfounded was in circulation here tonight that Francisco I. Madero had been captured this afternoon by federal troops. Consul Letcher Ellsworth places no credence in it, saying he would have received notice if Madero had been taken.

General Eductuoso Garcia, commanding the Mexican troops in Ciudad Porfirio Diaz denied positively that President Diaz had been killed. He said Diaz has the situation well in hand.

100 Rebels Killed.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 23.—A two days' battle in the streets of Guadalajara, Mexico, is described in a letter written Saturday by Charles Sieber of St. Louis, and received today by his son, Charles J. Sieber. The elder Sieber escaped to Mexico City, although his train was fired upon several times.

He said that fighting broke out in Guadalajara last Friday, continued all day and night, and was quelled only on Saturday morning.

"To my knowledge," he writes, "100 insurgents were killed. Their bodies were left to lie in the streets, and teamsters drove their carts over them where they were so numerous as to block the thoroughfares."

Uprising General.

He was informed, he says, by the manager of a firm employing hundreds of traveling salesmen that their reports showed an uprising all over Mexico, and of especial bitterness in the central and southern states.

Quiet Along Border.

LAREDO, Tex., Nov. 23.—For the first time since the revolutionary movement again Mexico assumed definite form troops today moved along the United States side of the Rio Grande. On the Mexican side everything is officially reported tranquil, the territory covered reaching from Matamoras to Ciudad Porfirio Diaz a distance of about 800 miles.

General Lauro Villar is in command of the Mexican forces from Matamoros to Nuevo Laredo and Col Ricardo Pena is in charge of the territory extending through the state of Nuevo Leon and Coahuila. General Villar had advices from his detachments today that quiet prevails. Like advices have been received by Colonel Pena at Ciudad Porfirio Diaz.

The border is unusually well guarded on the American side a cordon of soldiers extending from Brownsville to Eagle Pass. Detachments are located at Brownsville and Fort Ringgold while four companies of infantry are stationed at Laredo.

Americans Protected

Incoming passengers on trains from Mexico have varied stories to tell regarding the outbreaks. One passenger today told a story that there was treason within the ranks of the Mexican army and that 19 officers had been shot by order of the Mexican authorities.

Reports from the interior indicate that the Mexican authorities are strenuously endeavoring to protect Americans and that in many instances the police as well as the soldiers who are engaged in the guarding of property of Americans have been ordered to shoot down any one attempting to molest Americans or their property.

Word from the southern part of the state at Tamaulipas, which is thickly settled with American farmers indicates all quite there.

COLORADO TEACHERS FIFTH TIME WOMEN

DENVER Nov. 23.—That the supremacy of the men in the affairs of the Colorado Teachers association is rapidly waning, and that the women teachers are a power to be reckoned with in the future affairs of the pedagogical body, was demonstrated today when the fair sex carried the fight to victory by electing three of their sex to important offices.

Following is the list of officers elected:

President—Miss Grace Ellen Shoe Denver.

Director—C. A. Hollingshead, Denver.

Auditor—Miss Sara Ketner, Denver.

Representatives in educational council for three years—Wilson M. Shafer, Cripple Creek, C. M. Olsenbaugh, Denver, C. J. Collins, Holly, Mrs. Katherine M. Cook, Denver.

To prevent a possible repetition of the incidents which marked the contest for election to the Denver School board in 1909 between Mrs. Helen M. Jones and Ben C. Hilliard, the legislative committee of the association has been instructed to co-operate with the State Educational commission to secure the passage of a bill by the Eighteenth general assembly to prevent fraud in school elections. The bill provides for registration in districts over 1,500 in population, prohibiting the use of carriages, with penalties for illegal voting or other irregularities.

"Yellow" journalism was denounced when a resolution condemning the sensational tendencies of the press was passed. TURKEY DAY

Congregational church of Manitou, conducted Thanksgiving services last night.

Poor Not Forgotten.

The poor will not be forgotten on this day of rejoicing. The Ministerial association has decided that all contributions received at the joint services in the three Protestant churches of Colorado Springs shall be given to the Associated Charities, which body together with the Salvation Army and People's Mission, is arranging baskets of food for the needy. These baskets are being made up at Salvation Army hall, 13½ South Cascade avenue. The school children have given no small share toward this worthy contribution. Agent Bruno of the Associated Charities and the Rev. W. F. Lee are in charge of the distribution of food.

Many special dinners and services will be in order today and tonight. At the Y. M. C. A. at 6:30 p. m. will be given the annual dinner of that organization to Colorado Springs young men whose homes are elsewhere. A program of music and athletic events will follow the dinner, and Carl Balcom will give a stereopticon lecture.

Mrs. Ashton Potter has arranged to serve ice cream, cake and candy at the Boys club, in honor of the members, at 8 o'clock tonight, and about 200 boys are expected to enjoy the treat.

An elaborate Thanksgiving dinner will be given at the Union Printers home this noon, and beginning at 8 o'clock tonight a musical and literary entertainment by the "Home's own stock company" will be presented. This program is printed in full, elsewhere in this issue.

The pupils of the State School for the Deaf and Blind, as well as the patients at the various hospitals, will be given special dinners, and at many of the clubs and hotels of the city special menus have been prepared.

The employes of the Wells-Fargo Express company, in common with those of several other concerns, have been given plump Thanksgiving turkeys, and "Turkey day" will also be observed in thousands of other homes in the region.

Even the inmates of the city and county jails and the poor farm will not be forgotten, and royal "feeds" will be served at the three institutions.

Business Suspended.

The banks, Mining Exchange, city and county offices and practically all the business houses and offices will be closed all day. There will be but one mail carrier delivery, and the postoffice will remain open until 11 a. m., with the exception of the money order department, which will be closed all day.

The public schools of Colorado Springs will be closed today and tomorrow, while the Cheyenne school and those in Colorado City and Manitou have been closed for the week.

The street car employes will give a big social entertainment and dance in Majestic hall from 2 to 5 p. m. and from 7:30 p. m. to 2 a. m. The proceeds will be given to the sick benefit fund of the organization. A large crowd is expected.

The Fraternal Bankers Reserve society will give a masquerade ball in Caledonian hall tonight and entertainments and socials are scheduled by numerous other societies and clubs throughout the city.

A social and general good time will be held at the First Presbyterian church beginning at 7:45 p. m. for the friends and members of the church. Refreshments will be served and an interesting program has been arranged.

Although football enthusiasts will not have the pleasure of witnessing the usual Thanksgiving game in this city, thousands will await with interest the results of the Terrors-Longmont game at Longmont and the Tiger-D. U. contest in Denver, both to be played this afternoon.

Considerable interest is also manifested in the motorcycle races at Roswell park this afternoon.

CITY TAX

have not introduced a single ordinance before the City Council. Why don't you prepare the tax ordinance of which you have spoken to the Council and introduce it.

The discussion continued in this manner for three hours. Mr. Ullrich pointed out that the City Council has the right under the charter to enact ordinances taking care of this question. A city assessor, he said, may be created by ordinance, and the assessed valuation of Colorado Springs could be made high enough to secure ample funds well within the 20-mill expense limit. This cannot be done in time for the present budget, but negligence on the part of the Mayor and commissioners in not looking after the matter before was strongly intimated by the speaker.

It was clearly cited at the meeting that the 20-mill limit in the charter shall not apply to the "payment of any interest, sinking fund or principal of any bonded indebtedness of the city now existing or hereafter created," and Mr. Lennox said that perhaps the Merchants committee was on the wrong track. This brought out the fact that not all the members of the committee were aware of the clause permitting additional levy for bonded interest or principal.

After the meeting, L. A. Puffer, chairman of the special Merchants committee, said that some of the members were aware that the 20-mill limit can be exceeded for the purposes mentioned, and that others had not so construed the matter. He declared, however, that the committee regards a 20-mill levy sufficient to meet all expenses, although the failure of the committee to explain to the Council just where and how the estimates should be cut to meet a 20-mill levy led several of those present to regard the committee's report as rather arbitrary and not founded on careful investigation and understanding.

With regard to the corporation tax measure which Mayor Avery has repeatedly mentioned and which he will not introduce himself, the commissioners point out that he is trying to lay the blame on them for not submitting it. The Mayor insists that he cannot introduce an ordinance into the Council but City Attorney McKeaon, when asked for an opinion last night said:

It is my opinion that the Mayor has the same power to introduce an ordinance into the City Council as has any other member of that body. The Mayor himself however has always taken the stand that he cannot, but I think this is due to the fact that he formerly served as chief executive of a city without the power to submit an ordinance.

Article three, Section seven, of the charter expressly vests legislative powers, with some exceptions, in the City Council, and also explicitly states that the Council "shall consist of the Mayor and four councilmen."

said that all railroads were efficient in some directions, and particularly cited the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul as one that has a remarkably good record for fuel efficiency. He contended that railroad efficiency would be impossible without some scientific management, but he knew of no road that had adopted scientific management as a whole.

B. Taylor Bryan, counsel for the Business Men's league of St. Louis, introduced as a witness P. W. Coyle, traffic commissioner for that league, formerly assistant freight manager of the Wabash.

He said that the league represented upwards of 65 per cent of the freight tonnage out of St. Louis. He said that there is no justification for the proposed increase in rates, which he arraigned as grossly unfair and discriminative. He contended that the present rates on which the business of the country has been based will be adequate, and, among other things, pointed out that the same fast freight service now performed between New York and St. Louis, and on which the need of the proposed additional railroad revenue was to some extent predicated, was performed 15 years ago. Following his elaborate analysis of St. Louis conditions, the commission adjourned.

A. F. OF L. RECOGNIZES AEROPLANE INDUSTRY

ST. LOUIS Nov. 23.—The Western Federation of Miners controversy [illegible] was scheduled for hearing by the American Federation of Labor this afternoon did not come up owing to delay in the report of the committee having it in charge. The convention probably will take it up at the session Friday. The convention took cognizance of the aeroplane industry by adopting a resolution providing for a change of name for the carriage and automobile workers to the "Carriage, Wagon, Automobile and Aeroplane Workers International Union of America," and amending the charter of the body to conform.

What the Press Agents Say

THE AMUSEMENT MENU AT MAJESTIC TODAY

The menu is the big thing today—for the small boy the dinner menu, for the football fan the gridiron menu for the theatrical going public the amusement menu—and those who have not decided yet just how they are going to entertain themselves would do well to consider the program of entertainment offered by the Majestic. Going out for the afternoon or evening, particularly with a party of friends, to see a good vaudeville performance has advantages over staying at home, and particularly so when there is an opportunity to see at the trivial cost of 10, 20 or 30 cents a show of such excellence as that at the Majestic this week, which closes tomorrow night.

From both a comedy and musical standpoint the sketch, "Before and After the Ball," is one of the best ever staged and it is indeed seldom that any audience shows such enthusiastic appreciation of a number as is evinced at every performance. The tenor singing of Manuel Romain the noted vocalist and minstrel man simply brings down the house, while the reception of Rocy La Rocco the celebrated harpist, is equally hearty, and Miss Sadye ..Tyler wins applause by her capable singing and dramatic work.

Special appeal to lovers of vocal music, as well as comedy, is also made by the Free Setters Four, a talented quartet of male voices, who have a varied repertoire and inject some comedy that is novel and intensely amusing. There is also some catchy singing in the nifty little specialty of James McCormick and Eleanor Irving, which is full of laughable comedy, and no one ought to miss the former's song, "Foolish Questions." It is a hit. Stuart Kollins and the Misses Allison and Carmen offer some very fine banjo selections, the former's imitation of a church organ and a baritone singer on the instrument being especially good. And quite in keeping with the high class of all the other acts is the gymnastic offering of the Zyrell Brothers, who are deservedly popular with all. The bill is rounded off with two sets of entertaining comics on the motion picture canvas and an orchestra program of five popular numbers.

It is advisable to reserve seats early for today's performances.

"POLLY OF THE CIRCUS."

"Polly of the Circus," Frederic Thompson's remarkable production of Margaret Mayo's comedy drama of that name with Ida St. Leon comes to the Opera House tonight, Thanksgiving day.

"Polly of the Circus" with the fascinating paraphernalia of the sawdust ring is an offering that apparently exerts never-ending appeal, never since the time of its initial performance in New York three years ago has it failed to attract to the theaters where it is presented audiences that are remarkable for their size. Miss Ida St. Leon as "Polly," brings to this particular part an unusual amount of sympathetic congeniality, to those who have seen Miss St. Leon as 'Polly' admit the justice of the belief that the part might have been created with her solely in mind for its portrayal. It is doubtful if the fascination of the tanbark sawdust ring and canvas tents ever wholly leaves anyone who has once felt it, hence the realistic reproduction of the big ring show which is the feature of the third act of "Polly of the Circus" will undoubtedly proves as much of an attraction to audiences upon this occasion as it ever has in the past, this scene will always be considered one of the most remarkable achievements of Frederic Thompson's career as a producer of perfect stage illusions.

Good seats may still be secured 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00.

SEATS FOR THE CLIMAX

The seats for the engagement of Edward Locke's "The Climax" which appears at the Opera House Saturday night only, opens this morning. The prices are, parquet, $1.50; dress circle, $1.00, balcony, 75 cents and gallery 50 cents.

One of the charms of "The Climax" is the fact that it gives the public an insight into the home life of the better class of musicians, who are struggling for recognition. One sees and feels the very hopes, fears and desires of the little trio who make up the menage of dear, old, lovable Luigi. The intimate relation carries across the footlights and makes the audience willy-nilly, part and parcel of the family. It is this appeal to the heart which has made the work of Edward Locke so great a success. Joseph M. Weber is sending an astonishingly well-balanced cast to Colorado Springs Saturday to present this most charming of modern plays at the Opera House.

Edward Locke, the author of "The Climax" has sprung with one bound from obscurity to fame. The remarkable success achieved by his great play last season, has ranked him among the leading dramatists of the day. There has been no other drama produced in a half decade which has ... so much favor as "The Climax." The great success of the piece is due to the simplicity of its theme, its sparkling humor, its romantic environments and dramatic intensity. The story deals with the trials of a young woman who is struggling for operatic aspirations.

"THE COW AND THE MOON"

... A. Sellon, who comes here ... the spectacular musical extravaganza "The Cow and the Moon," is ... the biggest hit of his career it ... said. Mr. Sellon is well remembered for his portrayal of "Happy" in "... and the Fiddle," in which he ... an enviable reputation as a ... producer. In his new vehicle ... the dominant factor and his ... satires on topical affairs are in... mirth-provoking, especially may ... the one on our national ... baseball. Mr. Sellon as the famous "Ty Cobb," and his antics while at the bat and in the field is the very essence of good, clean comedy.

The company numbers some 40 people, there are 16 gorgeous scenes, and some 12 or more ringing song hits.

The engagement here is for one performance, Monday night only, at the Opera House.

COUGHING BURST

BLOOD VESSEL

Says Danger Avoided and Cures Coughs in 5 Hours.

A writer for the medical press states that coughing is responsible for the bursting of blood vessels quite frequently. A cough or cold means inflammation (fever) and congestion, and these in turn indicate that the body is full of poisons and waste matter. Simple relief, as found in patent cough medicines, and a whisky, often result in more harm than good, as they cause more congestion. A tonic-laxative cough syrup will work marvels and here follows a prescription which is becoming famous for its prompt relief and thorough cures. It rids the system of the cause, except it be consumption. Don't wait for consumption to grasp its victim, but begin this treatment which cures some in five hours. Mix in a bottle one-half ounce fluid wild cherry bark, one ounce compound essence cardiol and three ounces syrup white pine compound. Take twenty drops every half hour for four hours. Then one-half to one teaspoonful three or four times a day. Give children ... according to age.

Great Faith Held by Famous Oil Magnate

Favors New Theory That Stomachs of American People Are Growing Weaker.

Mr. Carey, who started the world with discoveries in finding oil, and who at the present conducts the Carey Oil Co. of Los Angeles, with offices 411 Stimson block, comes out with a very strong statement concerning La Fave, the young man whose medicine and theories aroused such widespread comment in the west recently, and who is now in Colorado Springs, meeting the public at the Robinson Busy Corner drug store.

Mr. Carey has taken the side of those who say that La Fave's theory is correct and his medicine all he claims. His emphatic statement is as follows: "There is no question in my mind that La Fave's theory is correct. He proved it conclusively in Los Angeles, and I fully agree with him when he says the stomachs of American people are becoming weak. Anyone afflicted with chronic ill health and a general rundown condition caused by stomach trouble, who lets this man La Fave leave without trying his medicine is very foolish. I say this after having a most remarkable experience with this medicine. I had heard of La Fave's success in Chicago before he came to Los Angeles, and therefore went to see him shortly after his arrival. I have had no faith in anything not prescribed by a physician for such particular cases after a careful diagnosis, but after eight years of awful suffering, during which time I spent over $25,000 with absolutely no relief, I felt it would do no harm to try this medicine.

"During these eight years I have had chronic stomach trouble to such an extent that I have been forced to go without solid food for five and six weeks at a time. I always had a sour stomach, was troubled with formations of gas and led the usual miserable life of the dyspeptic. I was dull, tired, nervous and gloomy all the time and have been always constipated.

"I have taken La Fave's medicine and for the past nine months I have not had the slightest signs of stomach trouble. I can eat anything with no bad effect whatsoever. I have a fine appetite and have gained flesh very rapidly. I am cheerful, full of energy and my nervousness has disappeared. My health is in perfect condition for the first time in eight years.

"I don't hesitate to say that I would not take $50,000 and be back where I was last year. I shall go out of my way to tell anyone these facts. My relief and thankfulness are beyond description."

When seen at the Robinson drug store, La Fave said: "I think I remember Mr. Carey. He was one of the most skeptical men who called on me during my visit to Los Angeles. He told me it would be worth $10,000 to me if the medicine helped him. I am very glad to know that he is so enthusiastic.

"I shall continue to meet Colorado Springs people from 10 o'clock until 5 each day at this store and explain the nature of my medicine."

Aspen; Dan Frazier, Leadville; J. B. Mahoney, Chicago; W. N. Franklin, Mrs. W. N. Franklin, Miss Franklin, Omaha; H. E. Mitchell, F. B. McConnell, Lincoln, Neb.; J. W. Flint, T. E. Jones, Cairo.

Many school children suffer from constipation, which is often the cause of seeming stupidity at lessons. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are an ideal medicine to give a child, for they are mild and gentle in their effect, and will cure even chronic constipation. Sold by all dealers.

GOOD REPRESENTATION FROM HERE TO ATTEND

Secretary Henderson of the Chamber of Commerce is trying to secure a good representation from this city at the Denver chamber of commerce luncheon tomorrow, and many interested in dry farming, the topic for discussion at the luncheon, will be present. Among those who will attend are: John T. Burns, who will deliver the address of the occasion; Secretary Henderson, John Lennox, president of the Merchants association, and A. J. Lawton, chairman of the Colorado delegation at the recent Spokane congress.

R. W. Thatcher, director of the Washington State college of Agriculture and an authority on dry farming will also address the meeting.

Cure Catarrh

It's Easy, Pleasant and Costs But a Trifle.

How many readers of The Gazette know that in Inland Australia where the mightiest of eucalyptus trees grow in abundance, that there is no consumption, catarrh or disease of the respiratory tract.

The refreshing balsam thrown out by these trees fills the air and is breathed into the lungs by the inhabitants and all germ life is destroyed.

If you have catarrh you cannot go to Inland Australia except at great expense, but you can breathe right in your own home the same pleasant, soothing, healing, germ killing air you would breathe if you were living in the eucalyptus district of Australia.

Just breathe HYOMEI; it is made from Australian eucalyptus and scientifically combined with thymol and other Listerian antiseptics.

Pour a few drops of HYOMEI into the inhaler and breathe it. As it passes over the catarrh infected membrane it kills the germs and heals the raw, inflamed surface.

HYOMEI is guaranteed to cure catarrh, coughs, colds, croup and sore throat, or money back. Complete outfit including inhaler $1.00. Extra bottles of HYOMEI cost but 50 cents. Sold by druggists everywhere.

To break up cold in head or chest in a few minutes pour a teaspoonful of Hyomei into a bowl of boiling water, ... and bowl with towel and breathe the vapor.

BROTHER-IN-LAW OF SUICIDE IN THE CITY

F. E. Jacot, brother-in-law of Stephen B. Routh, who committed suicide last week, arrived here last night to take charge of the body. Details have not been completed, but the funeral will probably be held in this city, with interment in Fairview cemetery. No word has been received from the relatives in Missouri.

MRS. MARY EHRICKSON VICTIM AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. Mary Ehrickson of Grant avenue was badly injured Tuesday evening when she attempted to run in front of an automobile driven by F. Franks of east Manitou. The accident happened near Adams crossing.

Mrs. Ehrickson was thrown to the ground, striking on her right shoulder, fracturing that member. She was also badly bruised about the head. Due to her advanced age her condition is considered serious. The driver of the auto was exonerated by Mrs. Ehrickson who took all the blame for the accident.

NO RACESUICIDE HERE

Race suicide has no place in Colorado City, according to the reports of several physicians during the last few days. Six births since Sunday is the record, and is considered the largest increase in the population for such a short time, for many years. The list follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Wilcox, 906 Jackson avenue, twin girls; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Patterson, 90 Main street, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Jackson of Agate street, twins, a boy and a girl; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Eladon, of Hayes street, a son.

MURPHY HAS CAUSE FOR REAL THANKSGIVING

Patrick Murphy, a son of Erin, was a thankful man yesterday because he escaped a jail sentence and a heavy fine for fighting in the alley in the rear of McDowell's saloon late Tuesday night. A monthly dividend of 2 cents a share for the future on all stock outstanding will probably be announced by President John T. Milliken of the Golden Cycle Mining company at the annual banquet of the company at the National hotel in Cripple Creek, November 1.

A dividend of 1 cent a share was paid November 1, for the first time in about four years. The dividend amounted to $15,000.

Delicately Formed

and gently reared, women will find in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives and mothers, that the one simple, wholesome laxative remedy, which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally and which may be taken at any time, when the system needs a laxative, with perfect safety and really beneficial effects, is Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

It has that true delicacy of flavor which is so refreshing to the taste, that warming and grateful toning to the stomach which responds so favorably to its action and the laxative effect which is so beneficial to the system when, occasionally, its gentle cleansing is required.

The genuine, always bearing the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., may be purchased from all leading druggists in original packages of one size only, price fifty cents per bottle.

DISTRICT ESTABLISHED FOR SANITARY SEWERS

Council Also Gives Avery Until Wednesday to Submit His Next Year's Budget.

At its meeting yesterday the City Council passed an ordinance establishing a sanitary sewer district. By the provisions of the ordinance the sewers are to be paid for by the abutting property owners. As has already been published the sewers will cost $9,[illegible]6.44, according to the city engineer's estimate. Specifications for the storm sewer to be built in the paving district will be ready for presentation to the City Council at its meeting on Wednesday next.

It was voted to give Mayor Avery until next Wednesday to submit his budget for the coming year.

A petition from the Woman's club, asking that the city dump be moved farther from the cemetery, was referred to Commissioner Frost to investigate. The club says that smoke and odors from the dump create a nuisance.

An ordinance introduced by Commissioner Frost asking that the wages of laborers be on a flat rate of $2.50 per day will be taken up at a subsequent meeting. A resolution was passed ordering that an emergency warrant for $200 be issued to F. M. Kistler who acted as attorney for the city in the recent case brought by E. G. Cory.

START WORK SOON ON MIDLAND CONTINUATION

Active construction work will commence the first of the year on the Grand River, Meeker and Salt Lake railroad, according to reports from Denver. The new road will be a continuation of the Colorado Midland railroad, with which it will connect at Newcastle. The preliminary work and the acquisition of the rights of way is in progress.

It is said that the Burlington, which controls the Midland, is behind the scheme, because it will give the latter road a line of its own into Salt Lake City. At present the Colorado Midland uses the Denver and Rio Grande Western tracks from New Castle.

ENGAGEMENT PROMINENT COUPLE IS ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Leonard Andrus of Dixon, Ill., announces the engagement of her niece, Miss Margaret Elizabeth Morris, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Avery Morris of Chicago, Ill., to Stewart McKee Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Morgan of Pittsburg, Pa. The marriage will take place early next year.

Mrs. Andrus and Miss Morris have just returned from California, and are guests at Miss Maynard's, 730 North Cascade avenue. While at Santa Barbara and Del Monte, Miss Morris won championship honors at golf, and she is widely known for her skill in athletics. Mr. Morgan is also fond of field sports. He is a graduate of Princeton university and belongs to a prominent eastern family.

BIG ENTERTAINMENT AND DANCE AT MAJESTIC HALL

Tonight at Majestic hall the street car employes union will give its big dance and entertainment for the sick benefit fund. The entertainment will commence promptly at 7:30 o'clock, and dancing will continue until 2 o'clock. In the afternoon there will be a matinee entertainment and dance from 2 to 5 o'clock.

A large crowd is expected to attend the social event, and since the entertainment and dance will be given both in the afternoon and evening, more than the usual sum will probably be realized. Many have been looking forward to the entertainment for weeks, and the excellent bill of local talent for the various vaudeville sketches alone assures them their money's worth.

OWNERS OF RESERVOIR ARE DENIED INJUNCTION

Judge Sheafor of the district court has denied an application of the owners of the Castlewood dam reservoir for an injunction to restrain the farmers along Cherry creek, Weld county, from using water below the dam. The case had been under advisement by the court for several days. For several months the case has been in the Weld county courts and the refusal to grant an injunction is practically a victory for State Engineer C. W. Comstock, who unlocked the gates of the dam and sent the water down the creek last summer when the farmers needed it badly. The company secured a restraining order against the engineer, but this was subsequently dissolved by Judge Sheafor.

FALLS FROM ROOF AND FRACTURES SHOULDER

DAMAGE SUIT RESULTS FROM AUTO ACCIDENT

Rose Gabrovsik filed a damage suit in the district court yesterday for $2,625 against A. M. Wilson, a prominent Manitou business man, who, it is alleged in the complaint, caused her to be injured and her clothes ruined by running into her buggy with an automobile.

The accident, it is alleged, happened November 13 when the plaintiff and her husband were driving south on Cascade avenue. The automobile was traveling in the same direction. The buggy, it is claimed, was upset and Mrs. Gabrovsik was thrown out.

Save your Christmas money by having your pictures framed at the Hedrick Wall Paper and Paint Co., 212 N. Tejon.

JURY SUSTAINS WILL

In a sealed verdict handed in at the county court yesterday, the jury sustained the will of Gabriel Parish of Palmer Lake. Parish, who was blind, left the bulk of his $2,000 estate to his housekeeper, Matilda Reeves, only $100 each being willed to his three children. Those fighting the will contended that undue influence had been exercised over the old man. The will was drawn four days before his death, and a majority of the witnesses were named as beneficiaries.

It was said last night that the case will be appealed to the district court.

MRS. LA BARTHE WAS WELL KNOWN IN CITY

Mrs. Eunice K. La Barthe, aged 60 years, whose death at Salt Lake City last Tuesday was announced in The Gazette yesterday, was for several years principal of the Liller school in this city. Hundreds of Colorado Springs people will remember her as the head of that institution when it was the largest school in the city, and not a few residents were formerly numbered among her pupils.

Mrs. LaBarthe was the wife of Jules LaBarthe of Denver and went to Salt Lake City on a visit. An attack of grippe developing into pneumonia, caused her death.

During her residence here, in the early 90s and elsewhere, she was always identified with the most progressive movements in club and civic life. She had done much to direct the Woman's club movement along lines useful to the public.

She was a member of the Utah legislature in 1898 and was the author of a bill restricting the wearing of women's hats in theaters.

FOUR LICENSES ISSUED

Four marriage licenses were issued from the county clerk's office yesterday, as follows: George W. Brown and Anna Pettit, both of Denver; Robert F. Moore, aged 46 and Anna Johnson, aged 39, both of Monument; Clinton A. Howland, aged 25, of Colorado Springs, and Dollie M. Wagner, aged 20, of Curtis, Colo.; Roy L. Mason, aged 26, of Colorado City, and Ada Batters, aged 20, of Chama, New Mexico.

The first named couple were married by Justice A. P. Toombs. The bride said she preferred a civil marriage ceremony because it contains no clause "about promising to obey the husband."

We are still in the wall paper and paint business. Figure with us. Hedrick Wall Paper and Paint Co., 212 N. Tejon.

TWO SMALL FIRES

Hot ashes, which set fire to the floor at 1719 Colorado avenue shortly after 8 o'clock yesterday morning sent the fire department to the scene. The blaze was put out easily and the damage was slight. Another small fire at noon called the department to 10 Boulder Crescent, where a few feet of fence was destroyed.

In the past 50 years, it has been found to relieve woman's unnecessary pains, and female misery, for which over a million suffering women have successfully used it. Try Cardui for your troubles. Tiger Team Is Eager to Claw Ministers at Broadway Park

DENVER, Nov. 23.—With the most important game of the season on their schedules and the one having essential bearing upon the Rocky mountain, Colorado and conference championships, the University of Denver and the Colorado College Tigers are primed for their battle at Broadway Western league baseball park tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Tigers arrived in Denver today shortly before noon and went immediately to the Savoy hotel. This afternoon they were given a workout at Broadway park in order to get acquainted with the lay of the ground and the conditions of light, air currents and the like, for no detail is being overlooked by the Tigers in their aspirations for championship honors, which can only be won by defeating the Ministers, who won the honor in 1908 and have since retained it.

The Tiger rooters will arrive in Denver early tomorrow morning and will be greeted at the union depot by a host of Denver students and graduates. Both Denver and the Tiger rooters will have bands in the morning street parade and at Broadway park. Tonight Denver students held a "nightshirt parade." Garbed in fantastic costumes, the Ministers passed through the business section, serenading the newspapers, and then lined up at the Savoy hotel to give cheers of good fellowship for the Colorado College warriors.

The advance downtown grandstand and box seat sale has been beyond the expectations of the management and the allotment of student tickets has been completely exhausted. An actual paid crowd of 6,000 is expected and has been provided for.

As the managers realize that while "the game's the thing" on Turkey day, they also feel that the crowd wants to get to the field and away quickly after the contest. Consequently Broadway park was selected as the nearest to town and as having the greatest number of car lines passing it. For the same reason the contest will start promptly at 2:30

A change was made yesterday in the officials. The umpire is still in doubt, as Hecox of Exton cannot officiate. The two teams then selected Sunny Jim Force of California university, but he had already been engaged for another game. This vacancy will be filled when Coaches Rothgeb and Koehler meet.

There have been many and varied reports concerning the condition of the contending players. The real dope seems to be that the conference strictures confining competition to students in the three upper classes will greatly handicap both elevens in the way of material, and consequently that several men not really physically fit will be forced to play, while bona fide students in good condition will sit on the side lines because they are freshmen. While neither squad has any too many substitutes, Denver is really more handicapped in this respect than the Tigers. However, as the feeling between the two teams is of the best, and Denver-C. C. games have always been especially clean, there is on both sides a feeling that while the game will be hard and fast, at the same time it will be clean and sportsmanlike.

The betting odds as posted indicate that the game will be the closest of the season. No odds are being offered on the probable score and the choice of teams is at even money.

Although to many Colorado College appears the logical winner, both on previous performances this season and on physical condition, this fact must be taken into account, namely, that Denver has the confidence of champions. Moreover, Denver in past history seems to have been a veritable hoodoo to the Tigers on Turkey day—in the last four years having defeated the Orange and Black at Colorado Springs twice and last Thanksgiving in Denver.

CORNELL PLAYS PENN

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 23.—Cornell will meet the University of Pennsylvania football eleven on Franklin field, Philadelphia, tomorrow afternoon, without the services of Fullback Simson, but the boys from Ithaca do not seem discouraged. Wilson will fill the vacancy. For more than an hour today the Cornellians practiced signals and their work was fast and with practically no fumbling.

AUTO RACERS OFF AT DAWN

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—Twenty-three stripped motor cars of various horsepower are tuned and ready for the start of the series of great road races at Santa Monica, the first of which will begin at daylight tomorrow. The big cars were given their final tryout today over the 8.4-mile course. One racer, the Apperson, driven by Ben Kerscher, came to grief and will not be a starter, and three other cars barely escaped being wrecked. The withdrawal of the Apperson, which was one the entries in the Vanderbilt cup race, will leave starters in the free-for-all, the feature event of the day, and will cut down the heavy stock car event to six.

The smooth, glistening course, which skirts the Pacific and winds along the foothills of the Santa Monica mountains through groves of olive and palms, is in perfect shape and a rate of speed averaging at least 75 miles an hour is expected. The first event, 101.004 miles, will be for cars under 300 cubic inches piston displacement. This is divided into two classes, 231 being the division point.

After a short intermission the heavy stock race for cars between 301 and 600 cubic inches piston displacement will begin. As all the cars which compete in this race will also be in the free-for-all at 202.8 miles, there will be at least 30 minutes intermission between the events.

FLORIDA TO START 100-DAY MEETING

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 23.—The Florida Live Stock and Agricultural State Fair association will inaugurate its winter racing season today when the gates at Moncrief park will open for a 100-day meeting. Over 1,000 thoroughbreds are quartered at the local course, while applications for additional stable room are being received daily.

Thirty-eight stakes valued at $62,000 will be decided at the meeting, the most notable among them being the Florida special handicap and the American Derby, valued at $5,000 and $6,000, respectively.

For the opening day an excellent card has been provided, the feature of which will be the Thanksgiving handicap, valued at $1,500, over the mile course. The weather is clear, the track in excellent condition, and fast time should be made.

Today's Games

Colorado College vs. Denver university at Broadway park, Denver. Game called at 2:30 o'clock.

University of Colorado vs. School of Mines at Union park, Denver. Game called at 2:30 o'clock.

The Gazette will have its own representatives at the Tiger-Denver game and at the High School-Longmont contest, and the scores of both games at the end of each quarter will be wired in with the quickest dispatch.

Those interested in the outcome of either contest are invited to call The Gazette, telephones 214 and 215, and learn the results at the earliest possible moment.

GOLF AND SHOOT AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

Members of the Cheyenne Mountain Country club have arranged two interesting outdoor events for today.

The most important, perhaps, will be the regular quarterly shoot for the MacNeill-Curtin trophy, which will be held on the club range at Broadmoor this morning. Sixty birds, in strings of 15 each, will be shot at. Additional birds are given as handicaps. The trophy contested for is one of the most valuable ever offered in the United States for a trap shooting contest. Among the entries are C. M. MacNeill, T. E. Curtin, F. D. Smith, Percy Hagerman, Duncan Chisholm, George A. Fowler, Lewis Carpenter, H. L. Center, C. B. Schley, W. M. Hager, Joseph Harrison and others.

On the golf links, also in the forenoon, there will be a tombstone tourney. Bogey for the 18-hole course is 80. In the case of a player who has a handicap of 10, he will be required to stop after making the ninetieth stroke and plant a "tombstone." The contestant advancing the farthest wins the tournament. The event is the first of its kind ever played in Colorado.

JUAREZ MEET OPENS TODAY

CIUDAD JUAREZ, Mexico, Nov. 23.—With a fine card and everything in readiness, the Jockey club of Juarez will open its second annual meeting of 100 days at Terraces park tomorrow. The meeting this year promises to eclipse anything ever held in the great southwest. With $300,000 given away in purses and stakes the horsemen have been liberal in making nominations in the $2 stakes, the largest number of stakes ever offered by a winter track.

Many improvements have been made during the summer and the plant now is rated as one of the finest in America.

The feature tomorrow will be the La Independencia handicap at a mile and a half with a value of $2,000. A very high class field has been named for the race, with Jack Atkin the probable favorite in spite of his 133 pounds

Attell Claims World's Title

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 23.—Monte Attell tonight was given a decision over Jimmy Walsh after 10 rounds of bloody fighting here. Attell claims the bantamweight championship of the world by virtue of his victory.

The San Franciscan won against great odds. Walsh who refused to weigh in is said to have weighed 122 pounds. Attell weighed 116, the bantamweight limit.

Attell by clever footwork managed to evade most of Walsh's rushes and to draw the Boston pugilist into clinches. Then Attell would rock his opponent's head with jaw punches and batter his mouth and nose. Walsh bled freely after the fifth round. Attell did little damage with his body blows. There were no knockdowns.

Walsh started the fight like a winner, closing Attell's right eye before the first round was a minute old. He frequently rushed Attell to the ropes and landed rights to the jaw but they did not appear to fear the Pacific coast fighter. In the last four rounds of the fight Walsh swung wildly.

TAFT WILL NOT SEE ARMY-NAVY BATTLE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—President Taft will not witness the annual contest in Philadelphia next Saturday between the Army and Navy football teams. The completion of his annual message and other important matters will keep him busy at the White House.

Secretary Dickinson, Secretary Meyer and Beekman Winthrop, assistant secretary of the navy, will see the contest.

Mrs. Taft and Miss Helen Taft probably will be members of Secretary Dickinson's party.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23.—"If Pennsylvania is beaten tomorrow by Cornell there will be no excuse to offer," said Coach Smith of the Quaker eleven tonight. All of the Pennsylvania regulars will be in the lineup and they are pronounced by Trainer Mike Murphy to be fit to play the game of their lives.

PAROLED PRISONERS ALL PROVE FAITHFUL

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 23.—The Colorado prison association issued its annual report today. A feature of the report is the statement that all prisoners paroled to the association in the year past had proved faithful to their pledges. Employment had been secured for a number of men released upon the guarantees of good conduct given by officials of the association and in every instance the association had been able to report that their charges were living upright lives and appeared to want to continue. The system of paroling prisoners to the association was adopted at the suggestion of the association itself a year ago.

COMMISSION MERCHANTS FEED CHICAGO STRIKERS

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—South Water street commission merchants today went to the relief of the striking garment workers by sending out turkeys and food to more than 500 families.

Boulder Is Anxious to Resume Athletic Relations With D. U

Boulder's desire to meet the winner of today's football game between Colorado College and Denver university, as expressed after a meeting of the State university's athletic board yesterday afternoon, is viewed with more than ordinary interest by those who have been keeping in touch with college athletics in Colorado.

Back of the offer, it is believed in many quarters, is a strong likelihood that Boulder will again resume athletic relations with Denver university and that the situation in the state will soon be back to the former order of things with all of the Colorado institutions competing among themselves in football, baseball and track events.

The Denver-Boulder split of two years ago, without going into the merits of the controversy, has probably done Boulder more harm than good, at least, this is the view taken by other Colorado institutions. Denver, it is pointed out, has been willing to renew relations with the Boulder athletic teams, but held back on the theory that it was up to the State university to meet them half way in coming to an agreement.

Should Denver win today's game with Colorado College, Boulder says that it will meet the Ministers in a post-season game to be played in Denver on December 3. This offer came direct from Boulder late yesterday afternoon, and was submitted to both Denver university and Colorado College, the latter represented by Coach Rothgeb. Denver, if she wins today, will accept the challenge. Colorado College, if it defeats Denver, will still agree to play Boulder in a post-season game, but will insist on staging the contest in Denver on December 3, as originally suggested after Boulder was forced to cancel the game with the Tigers three weeks ago.

To date Boulder has refused to consider the proposition of playing the Tigers except in Boulder, but in view of the evident strong desire to meet the winner of today's D. U.-C. C. game, and her willingness to play D. U. in Denver, it is believed that should the Tigers win today, Boulder will agree to the Tiger-Boulder game in Denver.

Should Boulder and Denver resume athletic relations the championship controversies which have been on for the last two years can be thrown into the discard and state athletic contests started again next spring with a clean slate.

MOTORCYCLES ARE TUNED UP FOR BIG RACES HERE TODAY

Motorcycle racing of the highest order will be furnished lovers of the sport today at Roswell park, the program starting at 3 o'clock.

Four of the best-known professional riders in the country, George Good, Red Armstrong, Silvers Boyd and Johnnie Albright, will go after new speed records with the chances even that one or more of them will lower the world's marks which they now hold.

Good, who will ride an Indian, is well-known in Colorado Springs, although he has not appeared here since he joined the ranks of professional motorcycle racers a few years ago. He was formerly manager of the Colorado Phonograph company, with headquarters on North Tejon street. Later Good created a sensation throughout the country in loop-the-loop stunts and later in a new feat, leaping the gap. Quitting this line, in which he was an expert, Good took up motorcycling racing and soon forged to the front. During the last few weeks he has won many races and if track conditions are favorable today he hopes to hang up some new marks.

In today's races Good will be pitted against some of the best known riders in the country. Good holds the 5-mile record on a third of a mile track, his time being 5.21 flat. Boyd, who will be matched against Good in one or two of today's events holds the world's record for 5 miles at 4.15 flat. Others who will be on the track today are Dan Connolly, the speedy amateur, Joe Walters and probably Art Stevens, the Colorado Springs crack.

There will be practice spins at Roswell this morning when the riders will hit up a clip that will probably be eclipsed when the match races are on later in the day. There was one spill, but no one was seriously injured. Good and Boyd each wore out a shoe yesterday afternoon in guiding their machines around the turns. Armstrong and Albright, the former riding alternately a Thor and a Merkle, expect to set new marks this afternoon.

YOUNG TILLMAN TO GIVE AN EXHIBITION

Young Tillman will be one of the attractions at the Street Car Men's entertainment at Majestic hall this afternoon and evening. In the afternoon the well-known lightweight will give a boxing exhibition with Young Herman and in the evening he will do some fancy boxing with his sparring partner, Billy King.

Young Tillman leaves early next month for Milwaukee, where the boxing game is flourishing, and later will go farther east where he expects to take on some of the classy men at his weight.

CATARRH

A SYSTEMIC BLOOD DISEASE

Catarrh is not merely an affection of the mucous membranes; it is a deep-seated blood disease in which the entire circulation and greater part of the system are involved. It is more commonly manifested in the head, nose and throat, because of the sensitive nature of these membranes, and also because they are more easily reached by irritating influences from the outside. The symptoms of Catarrh, such as a tight feeling in the head, nose stopped up, throat clogged and dry, hacking cough, etc., show that the tiny blood vessels of the mucous membranes are badly congested and inflamed from the impurities in the circulation. To cure Catarrh permanently the blood must be purified and the system cleansed of all unhealthy matter. Nothing equals S. S. S. for this purpose. It attacks the disease at its head, goes down to the bottom of the trouble and makes a complete and lasting cure by PURIFYING the blood. Then the inflamed membranes begin to heal, the head is cleared, breathing becomes natural and easy, the throat is no longer clogged, and every unpleasant symptom of the disease disappears. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and for this reason is the most certain cure for Catarrh. Book on Catarrh and medical advice free to all who write.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1910.

THE DAY OF THE TURKEY.

AFTER all is said and done this is primarily the day of the turkey. To a large section of the American population the Thanksgiving football game is one of the events of the year, and to a considerably smaller section the Thanksgiving church service is a matter of interest. Usually the people who attend either do not trouble themselves much about the other, but on the turkey proposition they reach common ground. The festive bird, the great American bird, is on Thanksgiving Day an object of higher regard than the eagle ever is, even on the Fourth of July. Lovers of game may pretend to prefer duck, but it is mere affectation; the turkey is the only bird worth having, and without it the most cherished American holiday would fall flat.

It would be interesting to know how the turkey gained its place as the piece de resistance of the Thanksgiving menu. According to the more or less fictitious stories of Thanksgiving feasts in early Colonial times our forebears loaded down the table with all sorts of good stuff turkey, venison and various other kinds of game, cranberries which they found in abundance in the neighborhood of Cape Cod and other delicacies the mention of which seems incompatible with stories of pioneer hardship. For a long time turkey necessarily mean wild turkey but today the domesticated variety is supreme. It gives to the American table on Thanksgiving Day the final touch which is supposed to have been given to the medieval English Christmas feast by the boar's head, and however high its price may soar it seldom manages to get beyond reach of the average American family on Thanksgiving Day.

If there were nothing else to be thankful for than this we could well afford to set aside a day in which to enjoy the contemplation, realization and reflection of the turkey dinner, but happily this season has brought its full quota of blessings. Despite the political trials and tribulations, the high cost of living, and the other troubles of which we all like to complain there is none of us who cannot find something today to be thankful for, and it is well that an occasion like this presents itself to make us realize the fact.

THE MAYOR AND THE COUNCIL.

THE meeting between the Council and a committee of the Merchants Association Wednesday to discuss the Mayor's budget served to make clearer the important fact that much of the difficulty is due to Mayor Avery's seeming inability to work harmoniously with his official associates. There is nothing in the situation that could not be satisfactorily adjusted by any group of right-thinking men willing to meet on a common ground with the one purpose of serving the public interest in the largest possible measure.

But it is clear that no headway can be made as long as Mayor Avery maintains his present attitude. He seeks to place the blame for the unfortunate condition wholly upon the four Commissioners. He affects to believe that but for their assumed unwillingness to work with him every difficulty would be solved. He claims for his own judgment an infallibility that is nothing less than preposterous; jauntily disregards the opinions and advice of the Commissioners and of the numerous citizens of good standing who have volunteered to help find the solution of the problem, and announces that he, himself, can handle the situation.

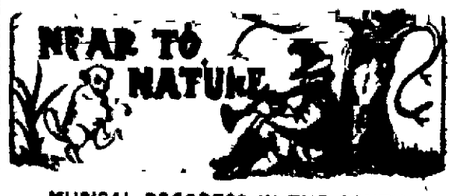

But he does not handle it. He tried to handle it a year ago in the same way that he is trying now and the result is apparent in the present difficulty. He began by cutting appropriations to the lowest possible minimum in a futile effort to reduce taxation, thereby impairing the efficiency of the various city departments for an entire year. Then he persistently neglected to take advantage of Charter provisions for raising revenue for 1911 until now it is too late.

TRYING TO WHIPSAW THE COUNCIL.

Finally, in the present emergency, he insists upon an ordinance for raising additional revenues by levying special taxes on public service corporations and on automobiles. He places on the Council blame for the failure to pass the ordinance, despite the fact that no such ordinance has ever been introduced. If he wants it to become a law why does he not introduce it? He has the same right to do so that any other member of the Council has, and it would be a very simple matter to find out where the real responsibility lies by putting it to a vote.

At the meeting yesterday with the Merchants Association committee it was made pretty plain that the Mayor, for some reason best known to himself, does not want to introduce this ordinance but is overwhelmingly anxious to have some other member do it. The whole business is mere child's play, unworthy of the dignity and standing of the Mayor of Colorado Springs. This is not a time to play petty politics or to seek to gain a petty advantage by efforts to put the Commissioners in a hole. It is a time for intelligent, patriotic action to rescue the city from its financial difficulties. It is a plain duty of Mayor Avery to throw aside the spirit of narrow intolerance that has characterized his actions throughout this affair and exhibit a broad and intelligent comprehension of the problem before him.

As the case stands he has succeeded only in revealing his own shortcomings and the superior merits of his associates, and unless he changes his tactics he will emerge with vastly less credit than he had in the beginning.

EXAGGERATED SIMPLICITY.

From the Chicago Tribune

TOLSTOI will be remembered as the author of 'Anna Karenina' and other large canvases of life; not as an Apostle of Privation, going about clad in hand-me-downs and subsisting on black bread and cucumbers. Exaggerated simplicity is as tedious to contemplate as exaggerated luxury, and no more impressive than the collecting of postage stamps. People of means who put on homespun airs produce in us a sensation of lassitude.

WORLD renouncers are seldom heroic. Emerson was a greater man than Tolstoi and it never occurred to Ralph Waldo to can the well known universe, in spite of its shortcomings. Let us quote the seer for the thousandth time. 'It is easy in the world to live after the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude to live after our own, but the great man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude."

THE PERVERSITY OF THE COLLAR BUTTON.

From the Chicago Tribune

A boilermaker is not usually a pin, but like his friend the blacksmith, he has plenty of muscle, but one of his trade in Los Angeles broke his collar bone while trying to button on his collar. Let us consider the collar button. It is a tiny thing, yet nothing of man's invention has developed such perversity. Designed for a perfectly legitimate use, it has become an obstacle to his moral progress, an incentive to profanity, a wrecker of belief, and a destroyer of domestic peace.

This small adjunct to man's wearing apparel is a bit of gilded metal intended to pass through the front of the shirt buckband and to serve to fasten the collar upon. Presumably of inanimate material it yet possesses some of the functions of a living organism. Through some molecular or radio activity it has powers of movement which human science has not been able to follow and this faculty appears to be guided by a supernatural force which can only be accounted for by the presence of mind.

This mental force is in turn dominated by a perverseness which has so far baffled the savants. Dissection of a collar button under the microscope has revealed nothing which will account for this phenomenon. A perfectly harmless collar button about to be inserted in the neckband of a shirt will suddenly spring from the fingers and disappear from human gaze. Search reveals it yards away from its original position usually against the mop board behind a heavy dresser too low to allow the inserting of the recovering arm and hand. Even when discovered the button usually scuttles away to a still more remote hiding place.

At other times, when it has been successfully inserted in the neckband it resists all efforts to button the collar upon it. There is where the danger lurks. The Los Angeles boilermaker is only one of millions of victims of the refractory collar button. The world is strewn with human wrecks as a consequence of its perversity. Even woman, who can button nearly everything except her own dress, falls back baffled in an attempt to aid her husband. We know of nothing which offers such fallow ground for research to the psychologist and philosopher as the collar button, and we should be glad to hear that the laboratories had broken up the work.

THE TIDE TOO STRONG.

From the Chicago Record-Herald.

Colonel Roosevelt faced the situation with characteristic boldness, beat the old war at Saratoga, sought to steam the tide by blocking the purification of the party, which, as he himself put it, had turned its rascals out. But there was the reaction still to be overcome as well as a strong opposition.

The state was influenced, like its neighbors, by the outcry against the tariff and the high prices and as a further effort to Roosevelt's [illegible] there was the hostility of the great financial interests to [illegible]. There were old scores to be paid off, [illegible] had added to the dislike of the interests by his radical declarations on certain questions.

The Republican candidate for governor was a capable man with a clean record, but Roosevelt became the paramount issue, and the defeat of Stimson will be hailed with as much glee as the defeat of Roosevelt. The cry was, "Beat Roosevelt now and you will have him beaten for 1912," and the returns indicate that it was [illegible] great effect.

HISTORY REPEATS.

From the New York Tribune.

History has a way of repeating itself, and the loss of the house of representatives by the Republicans this year vindicates a precedent set in the elections of 1884, 1890 and 1894, though suspended under exceptional circumstances in the election of 1898. This rule is that the party in power undertaking a general tariff revision is punished at the polls both for what it does and what it fails to do. It is held accountable both by those who think it went too far and by those who think it did not go far enough, and these two elements generally make up a majority in the country.

ROOSEVELT, THE FREE LANCE.

From the Pittsburg Dispatch

In New York the personality of Roosevelt was made the issue by his enemies. But it is worth while to remember that before Roosevelt entered the fray it was conceded that the scandals and predominance of the Republican machine element had predestined a Republican defeat. All that kept New York Republican for four years past had been the popular confidence in Hughes. When he retired to the supreme bench the apparently unchecked sway of the Barnes-Woodruff-Wadsworth clique foreshadowed to all observers a Democratic victory. The entry of Roosevelt into the fight and the unseating of that element from Republican control had a peculiar effect. As was expected, it turned the machine element into secret foes, but the independents who were protesting against machine supremacy turned against the man who expelled it from Republican control.

We think those who believed that by this course they could drive Roosevelt from public activity are not acquainted with the ex-President. It is more likely to make a man of his pugnacity more active in the future. Especially since a large share of this element protest admiration and support of Taft, the result in connection with that of other states is most injurious to him, while Roosevelt, clear of official responsibility, may again exhibit his ability to smash nicely set-up arrangements.

The Daily Chit Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

I'm thankful on Thanksgiving day, I'm thankful all the time. To bunch your gratitude this way is something like a crime. I'm thankful when November brings white meat and pumpkin pie; but my old heart as gaily sings in April or July. Of course I'm glad of bumper crops, and barns and cribs that groan. I'm glad the little kids have tops, that Fido has a bone. I'm thankful when the Hausfrau springs a new gown or a hat. I'm thankful that I have some way to cheer my pony's lot. I'm thankful that my old hens lay real eggs that hit the spot. But more than all of this, my friends, though things like these are grand, I'm thankful that the heaven bends above no good a land. A land where people do their best because they like to strive; who do their work with pleasant zest, all glad that they're alive. I'm thankful that each day I meet fine people, clean and white, with kindly hearts and tempers sweet, ambitions to be right. I'm thankful that so many try, unmindful of life's scars, to shape their pathway for the sky, and earn a crown of stars.

THANKSGIVING

© 1910 by [illegible] Chas. Mason

"Lord, for the erring thought, not into evil wrought
Lord, for the foolish will, betrayed and baffled still
For the heart fixed itself kept, our thanksgiving accept."

—William Dean Howells.

Twelve years ago next Sunday night the steamship Portland, a passenger steamer plying between Boston and Portland, disappeared from the sight and ken of man.

She left Boston at 6 o'clock at night, carrying 170 passengers.

She was sighted at 8 o'clock off Thatcher's Island, and that was the last that was ever seen or heard of her. There was not a single survivor, and it has never been known where the ill-fated ship went down.

Probably you are wondering why, on Thanksgiving morning I am recalling such a gruesome disaster as that.

Well, I'll tell you a little anecdote connected with this event, and then maybe you'll understand.

I happened to be living in Boston at the time and was near the Eastern Steamship wharf at the hour the ill-starred ship sailed. Just after the gangplank had been pulled up and the Portland had begun to back out, a carout, a carriage dashed up to the wharf and a man leaped out and tried to jump to the boat, which was then about 20 feet away. Two men on the wharf stopped his insane attempt and he stood there alternately insisting that the boat had sailed five minutes too early and giving his unvarnished opinion of the cabman, who had got caught in that fool blockade and made him miss the boat.

A day or two later I read an interview in a Boston paper with this man, telling about his narrow escape and expressing his thankfulness for the dispensation of Providence that made him miss that boat. (There was no mention of the cabman).

Today is Thanksgiving. Someone, of course, has reminded you to be thankful for your positive blessings, but what about your negative ones?

What about the "erring thought not into evil wrought?"

What about the chance you just missed the opportunity that was denied you and which you now see would have led you in decidedly the wrong direction?

For short what about the happy 'It-might-have-been's?

Of course the story of the man who missed the Portland is the story of a very big, and once in a lifetime, or 10 lifetimes, "It-might-have-been."

But surely there were some lesser "It-might have-beens" of the same sort, in your own life this past year?

There was a very sweet and wise poet once who said:

"Of all sad words of tongue or pen
The saddest are these, 'It might have been'"

And of course they are sometimes, but not always, by any means.

Quite as often they are happy words only usually, then we forget to say them.

And that isn't fair is it?

So why not make this Thanksgiving, in the year of our Lord 1910 a little unusual by recalling to mind some of these happy "it might-have-beens," by giving thanks for the erring thought not into evil wrought," by admitting that some of the things we have fought against have proved blessings, and best of all by looking at some of our present worries in the light of this recollection.

The First Thanksgiving Dinner

From the Boston Herald.

Probably the best Thanksgiving game dinner ever sat down to by a small but select company latter even than any served up two centuries later down Boston harbor by old Taft at his world-renowned Point Shirley—was the initial one started in the woods by our Pilgrim forefathers in Plymouth, Mass. Deplorably ignorant as were these Pilgrim forefathers and their wives of such culinary guides, philosophers and friends as the modern cook books, and still more of such exquisite treatises on the gastronomic art as these of Brillat-Savarian and other dyspeptic etherealized chefs, they none the less knew a thing or two well worth knowing on the indispensable conditions of a Thanksgiving dinner that should leave behind a sense of lively thyme and summer-savory gratitude to God and man and and one another as brothers and sisters in the Lord.

"Before you roast your hare, catch him," was the first condition observed by them. So days before the feast they sent out the fowlers to range the woods and shores. Such helpmeets of game and fish as they brought in would make today's stalkers in Faneuil Hall market stare and gasp worse than ever did Quintilian. It was fresh, virgin prairie hunting and angling in those days. Wild turkeys had not yet learned the ves of their legs in running away, fat ducks stood still to be shot at, ducks, snipe, plover and quail were simply curious to cultivate closer acquaintance with these queer English people, and, as for trout, their fancies never for a moment demanded to be tickled, teased and toyed with by killingly seductive flies or any such piscatory tomfooleries. So there was not only enough in the way of "baked meats" for the Thanksgiving dinner, but enough left over to richly "furnish forth the marriage feast" of any John Alden and Priscilla two months later.

Then for the second condition of a Thanksgiving dinner fit to sing "Old Hundred" over. No epicurean cooks to stimulate a cloyed and jaded palate—only the sauce of a healthy, hearty appetite! As though the good Lord who made the fowls of the air, the fish of the sea and the beasts of the field did know how, by the rarest combination of nature and grace, to impart its own special delicious flavor to a haunch of venison, to the breast of a mallard duck, to the melting flesh of a plover and to the saffron-colored meat of a speckled trout!

Third, this was to be a Thanksgiving day festival—not a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer, celebrated with the most rueful of faces and the scantiest set-out of moldy hardtack. It was to be a new departure. The disposition had been to overdo the matter of fasting and humiliation. The doctrine of personal responsibility and the total depravity of the heart had been run into the ground, till the very idea that such a sinner as man either would, could or ought to relish a really good folly time seemed almost a direct affront to God, a discord in the music of the spheres, which consisted solely in dirges, requiems and jeremiads.

Now let the good Lord himself take a hand in the matter! There might, after all, be something in this fallen world to feel actually thankful and hilarious over. Spite of their sins, God might now and then really enjoy seeing his creatures happy and repress every personal inclination to launch a thunderbolt into the midst of them, to rattle the plates and dishes into a startling admonition that they ought to be reflecting on the final crack of doom.

Historically, then, thus started Thanksgiving day, and as such has it remained through the generations a day of feasting, a day of family reunions, a day of hilarity for the young folks a day of blind man's buff and rollicking kissing games, a day of devout gratitude for such humble blessings as the pumpkin and its stored-up summer sunshine against the winter's cold, a day of thankfulness for well filled barns and bins bursting with potatoes, turnips and carrots, a day of rejoicing over the prosperity and plenty of the hay crop of Massachusetts, the wheat crop of Dakota, the corn crop of Kansas, and—as some would even add—the tobacco crop of Virginia, carrying peace and comfort to the souls of thousands of poor, tired laboring men as they smoke their corn-cob pipes.

Of course in these latter years Thanksgiving day has been shorn of many of its former glories through the little unpleasantness that has grown up between it and Christmas. But surely, in the true spirit of Uncle Tobey and the fly, there is room for both.

One festival at least of the year ought to be solely dedicated to the duty and delight of gratitude for common blessings, and the material, however humble, collected that will minister to such gratitude. We are not all seraphs or cherubs, but all of us are beings who can be thankful for something. And this fine sense can be developed in us only by appreciating and in paying something that comes straight home to our "business or bosoms," as Bacon says. Today, therefore, let each one pick out one single object at least and dwell on it and appreciate it in all its heights and depths one's wife, one's husband, one's child, one's neighbor, one's dog, one's cat, one's anything that is real to him—till he feels what a whole world it is in itself; and so forgets to growl or sulk or complain that there are mosquitoes, gnats or midgets all around to irritate him about everything else.

SAN LUIS PUPILS TO GIVE CHARITY FAIR

The pupils of the San Luis school will hold their annual fair for the benefit of the Colorado Springs Day nursery kindergarten tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Philip B. Stewart and Mrs. Franklin E. Brooks will preside at the tea table.

Thayer Hobson, James Peck, Archie Blair and Billie Farrington will have charge of the huge wooden shoe occupied by the "old woman who had so many children she didn't know what to do," and deal out mysterious packages.

Ice cream will be served by Alice Farnsworth, Lucille Fisher and Eleanor Van Vechten. The candy will be in charge of Harriet Hobbs, Dorothy Price, Hilary Glen and Janet Pennoyer. Christmas articles will be in charge of Eleanor Greenwood, Edith Farnsworth, Berthe Armit, Mary Casement and Katherine Brooks. All kinds of toys will be in charge of Bruce Steele, Jack Madeira, Gerald Bennett, Cope Elliott and Edward Parsons.

Christmas cards, calendars, candle shades and other like articles will be in charge of Miriam Perkins, Helen Harmon and others. Misses Agnes Donaldson, Charlotte Kissel, Margaret Wilson and Ruth Gile have prepared a delightful surprise for those attending the fair.

For several years this fair has been successfully given about this time, and the patrons and friends of the pupils of the school have taken a great interest and by their liberal purchases enabled the management to maintain an excellent kindergarten at the nursery. Withal, it is made quite a society event, and many of the ladies always congregate at the fair for afternoon tea while inspecting the choice array of articles suitable for holiday gifts.

MAID OF ORLEANS IS AGAIN ACTIVE

...al Drainage Prompts Reopening of Beacon Hill Mine. New Plant Built.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Nov. 23.—The ...ers of the new mine plant installed by the M. B. Burke Mining and Investment company on the Maid of Orleans ...m on the western slope of Beacon Hill, were steamed up this morning, ... active operations were commenced. The investment company, holding a five years' lease on the property, with ... to purchase, has installed a complete plant and erected a commodious shaft house and necessary mine buildings at an approximate cost of $7,000. ... now proposes to sink the main ...ft an additional 500 feet from its present depth of 480 feet.

The mine, although immediately adjacent to the El Paso estate and Henry ... mines, has produced but a light tonnage of low grade ore, but General Manager M. B. Burke, controlling the ... Adney, who sank the shaft on that property from surface to a depth of 985 feet before obtaining a pay ... is confident that depth only is required to bring the mine into the shipping list.

... completion of the deep drainage tunnel, combined with the drainage effected through the El Paso drill hole, will permit of the work contemplated on the Maid of Orleans, and sinking will commence within the next few ... Work will be resumed in the ... Adney mine when the water has ...ered below the fifth level, now submerged.

... Production of Independence.

The October output from Stratton's Independence, as cabled the London office by Manager Argall, was given at 1,600 tons of an average value of $20 to the ton, the gross bullion value amounting to $32,000. In addition the full tonnage treated at the concentrating plant during the month was 8,192 tons of an average value of $3 a ton.

Strike on Old Gold.

A rich strike has been made on the Old Gold Mines company's Beacon hill ... late by Lessee Greenfield and associates, and not on the Hiawatha as first reported. Greenfield is operating ... on both properties. On the Old Gold a drift on the main vein has entered a rich shoot and the quartz, carrying calaverite, has shown high values in both gold and silver. A shipment is now being made ready.

Gold King Lesses Shipping.

Owen Roberts, lessee on the Gold King mine in Poverty gulch, has teams ordered to load out a three-car shipment tomorrow, for himself and sub-lessees operating under him. The ore to be shipped is between $30 and $40 to the ton.

Golden Cycle Dividend.

It is officially announced that a dividend of two cents per share will be paid to stockholders of the Golden Cycle Mining company on December 1. The amount to be distributed is $30,000. The Golden Cycle stock is closely held and no date has been announced for the closing of the books of the corporation.

Exploiting the Eclipse.

Extensive development is underway on the Eclipse mine on the western ... of Battle and Squaw mountains ... "Denver part" holding the lease ... The management has full control of the water after a long and costly fight. The property is owned by the Wyner Gold Mining company.

MEXICAN SECURITIES SUFFER DEPRESSION

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Many brokers were absent from the floor of the stock exchange today, having departed to anticipate the coming holiday. As there was no intention on the part of most of them to return before Monday of next week, the recent tendency toward dullness in the dealings in stocks became more pronounced.

The Mexican disorders received much attention. The most pronounced effect of the news was seen in the early decline in the price of American Smelting among whose assets are some Mexican properties. The United States of Mexico four per cent bonds sold down to 92½, although previous to this week they had not sold lower than 94½. The National Railways of Mexico securities were slightly depressed but the market for them was almost nominal, as it was for the government bonds.

Money conditions showed little change. The market for mercantile paper was reported to show more disposition to take on choice grades.

In spite of the easing tendency of the private discount rate in London today it was reported that bankers finance bills were being placed abroad in the process of borrowing for New York account. The foreign exchange market showed no trace of such bills, rates advancing in the early part of the day. London's reported dread of gold exports in face of this showing proved perplexing.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,673,000.

U. S. 4s registered advanced ¼ per cent on call.

THEY ALL DEMAND IT

Colorado Springs, Like Every City and Town in the Union, Receives It.

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies today that relieve, but do not cure. Here is evidence to prove that Doan's Kidney Pills cure and the cure is lasting.

F. Matske, R. R. No. 1, Seibert, Colo., says: "One of our boys was troubled by weak kidneys from infancy, and he could not retain the kidney secretions. During the night he suffered from backache and he always felt tired and miserable in the morning. A few months ago we began giving him Doan's Kidney Pills. They have made a big improvement, clearing up and regulating the passages of the kidney secretions and strengthening the back. Considering this experience with Doan's Kidney Pills, there is no doubt in my mind as to their efficaciousness in relieving kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ADVANCES GENERAL IN CEREAL MARKET

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Dwindling estimates of the Argentina exportable surplus gave the wheat market a chance to advance today. Fully 1,700,000 acres were said to be seriously impaired, a large proportion being lost beyond recovery. In consequence the close here was the same as last night to ⅛@⅜c higher. Corn, too, finished ⅛c to ⅜c up and oats likewise ⅛c to ⅛@⅜c. In provisions last sales left quotations unchanged to 2½c lower.

There was a large trade in wheat. At the opening sentiment was quite bearish on reports that rain threatened to break the drouth in South Argentine. Later cables gave a different showing and lifted values to the high point reached a week ago. Shorts became especially uneasy and covered on a large scale. Further ground for fear was the fact that numerous complaints were coming in about dry weather in the winter wheat belt southwest, particularly Kansas and Oklahoma. The close was easy with May up ⅛@⅜c at 97⅝c to 98c.

The corn market rose sharply following rumors that the French import duty of 14.7c per bushel would be suspended. May fluctuated between 46⅛c and 47⅛c, closing ⅜c higher but easy at 46⅞@47c. In the cash trade the feeling was firm for new corn but less steady for old. No. 2 yellow finished at 51½@⅝c.

Elevator interests bought December oats and sold May. The latter month sold from 33⅝c to 34⅛c, and closed ⅛c ⅛c net higher at 34@34⅛c.

At the end of the day pork was down 2½c to 5c; lard was unchanged to 7½c lower, and ribs were off 5c to 7½c.

UNION
Colorado

Creating Wealth for the State of Colorado

By building its lines through lands then worth less than $5 per acre, the Union Pacific Railroad has aided in increasing the value of those lands many fold.

The assessed value of all property in Colorado has increased from $219,654,176 in 1900 to $400,671,646 in 1909.

There has been no more important factor than the Colorado railroads in creating this enormous wealth.

The resultant prosperity has increased the value of the railroad.

In 1900 the Union Pacific paid taxes in the State of Colorado amounting to $113,728.16. In 1909 it paid $203,039.94.

Progress for the Union Pacific Railroad means progress for the whole State. Every mile of additional track laid, every train or station, creates wealth, which is shared not only by the Union Pacific Railroad but by every citizen in the State of Colorado.

We have a book on Colorado and its resources which will be mailed free to some friend in the East for the asking. Please send us his address.

Every Union Pacific ticket office is a bureau of railroad information. Make your wants known there, or write to me.

FOR SALE Real Estate

HO! FOR TEXAS

Don't you want to be one of 18 to join our next excursion on December 6 to Corpus Christi, the land of health, wealth and sunshine? If you don't need any more money, don't invest in the gulf coast country, as an investment there is sure to double in value. We are selling both lands and town lots at bargain prices and on easy terms. With 18 people we can have our own private car. Come in and let us tell you all about it.

THE SUN REALTY CO.

W. H. HOWELL,
23½ N. TEJON ST.

YOU HAVE HEARD the old, old story of "Why Pay Rent" until sometimes you really believe you require the services of a physician or the proverbial "Philadelphia lawyer" to answer the question for you. We are not going to ask you "Why you pay rent," but we are going to tell you about a HOME BARGAIN in an 8-room, modern (except heat) house that is well located, that you can buy for $1,750 part time, part cash. If after investigating this property, you don't buy it, we have no objection to your still buying rent receipts for, really, it's none of our business what you do with your money. Better come and let us show you this place.

KINSMAN & WOLFF.
404 Colorado Ave., Colorado City.

Investors, look this up, as some one is going to make some easy money. I need the money and will take $100 per acre if taken soon. Address owner, Frank P. Arbuckle, Winslow, Colo.

WEST SIDE BARGAIN

Owner sick and nonresident and must sell this 5-room house on 3 lots, all fenced with chicken tight fencing; barn, chicken houses and all fine repair; $1,200, on easy terms.

W. A. M'NALLY
Room 1, Midland Block.

SAY—If you buy this one, and we know you will buy it, if you only take time to see it, you can have the pleasure of bidding the owner good-bye the first of December. That is the reason he wants to sell it, so you know it is a bargain at $1,850. It is a pretty 4-room house and bath, not sure but it is entirely modern; fine location. House built about one year. When you say it's "just a dandy home" that tells the whole story. Must be sold this week.

CLERKS ACTIVE; WANT TO CHANGE NAME

Members of the Rocky Mountain Hotel Clerks association are beginning to believe that their official title is altogether too unwieldy and cumbersome, and they will try, at their next meeting in Denver, December 13, to have an amendment to the constitution changing the name to the "Greeters of Colorado." That this will be the official name after that date is pretty certain for the sentiment is practically unanimous in that regard.

The association is also trying to get the support of all concerned for a big ball, to be held in the ball room of the Brown Palace hotel in Denver the latter part of January, preferably on the "Twelfth Night." It seems very probable that this will be the gala event of the season in hotel circles, as members of the association expect to place the Greeters once and for all on the social map by this ball.

At the next meeting, there is also a probability that the constitution will be amended a new constitution and by-laws passed. In the next issue of the hotel clerks "Bulletin" the matter will be discussed and a proposed new set of by-laws and constitution set forth.

ENFORCEMENT WHAT IS REALLY NEEDED

Brake Points Out Trouble With Colorado Mining Laws. Forum a Success.

DENVER, Nov 23—"We have made the right move," said Dr Victor C. Alderson, chairman of the commission to investigate mining conditions in Colorado, after the first open session in the senate chamber today.

"We have received good advice from the speakers and have found the open discussion profitable. The commission wants the people of Colorado to understand that it is not a star-chamber body. Anybody who has advice to give can do so."

More than a score of experts in mining attended the meeting today. James F. Gammille, a mine foreman of Pennsylvania, who is touring the west, stopped in Denver to attend the session and give his views. He spoke of the dangers of electricity and advocated other power for haulage. Insurance men, railroad experts, cement men and humane society officials were present eager to give their views on the subject of new laws for the protection of life.

George A. Stough of the Travelers Life Insurance company made a speech in which he declared that wood should be eliminated from mines as far as possible, and that mules should be stabled above ground if practicable.

Edwin V. Brake state labor commissioner, spoke of the conditions in southern Colorado as he had found them.

"It will do no good to pass laws unless they are enforced," said Mr Brake. "We have good laws on our statute books now, but they are broken every day with impunity."

NEW YORK CITY HAS MORE THAN HALF OF STATE'S POPULATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3—New York city for the first time has become greater in point of population than all the rest of the state of New York.

Statistics giving the population of the state as enumerated in the thirteenth census and made public today show that the country's greatest city has more than half of the inhabitants of the most populous state in the Union.

While this is the most striking feature of the state census figures, almost as remarkable is the rate of the growth of the Empire state. Since 1870 it has doubled in population and the rate of increase in the last 10 years 25.4 per cent is the greatest since the decade between 1840 and 1850 when the percentage of increase was 27.8.

This increase is believed by the census officials to be due to the development of the manufacturing interests and to foreign immigration.

With this increase in population will come a larger representation in the lower branch of Congress where New York now has 37 members. The exact number of new representatives will be 10 if the present ratio of apportionment is retained by Congress.

Of the 9,113,279 people in New York state as shown by today's statistics 4,766,883 are in New York city.

SUNNY MONDAY

Soap is cheaper than clothes and it pays, therefore, to get the best soap, even for laundry purposes. The best laundry soap made is a white soap called "Sunny Monday," which contains no rosin and is kind to clothes. One bar of Sunny Monday will go as far as two bars of ordinary yellow laundry soap which contains rosin; its use, therefore, means economy.
